2019 LECTURE AND MUSIC SERIES

Please note that the Lecture and Music Series is one (1) night only. We have new, exciting, and varied programs for both the Lecture and Music Series, and suggest you buy your tickets early to ensure a seat is available for you.

This is the TWENTY-THIRD (23RD) year of our Cultural Series, and the Town looks forward to seeing you.. Without your support, there would be no Series, which is a source of pride for the Town of South Palm Beach. We need your continued participation, so please send in your application and check today. It would be appreciated if you would help us spread the word to new residents, those who rent during season, and your friends who may want to attend.

We work hard to keep our programs top quality while keeping costs down. We strive for local, national, and international topics that are informational and add a bit of program diversity. The Town appreciates your involvement in the question and answer sessions.

We encourage different points of view expressed with respect and civility.

Thank you for your cooperation.
